UNEVEN WORLD

Global Challenge

- Extreme Poverty - 767 million people continue to live in extreme poverty, subsisting on less than USD 1.90 a day
- Inequality in the distribution of health, education, and income within countries
 - 26 people own the same wealth as 3.8 billion
 - More than quarter of working adults making less than $3.10 dollar a day
 - Inequalities can also be seen in life expectancies, access for health, education and other public services
 - Spatial inequality – unequal distribution of resources
 - Gender inequality

CASE STUDIES

CASE 1 THE ANNA HAZARE MOVEMENT

- In 2011, Anna Hazare initiated a movement towards a stronger anti-corruption Lokpal bill in Indian Parliament.
- Anna Hazare's hunger strike captured the imagination of Indian youth and gained the support of millions all over the country, making it a one-of-a-kind movement in decades, with some online signature campaigns such as 'Avaaz' getting more than ten lakh signatures in six hours.
- The Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013 was passed by the Indian Parliament paving the way for establishment of a Lokpal (Ombudsman) to fight corruption in public offices and ensure accountability of officials.
- The movement was named among the "Top 10 News Stories of 2011" by Time Magazine.

CASE 2 NSS LITERACY CAMPAIGN

NSS is one of the largest student volunteer forces in the world and today, has more than 3.2 million student volunteers on its rolls, spread over 298 universities and 42 (+2) senior secondary councils and directorates of vocational education all over the country. From its inception, more than 3.75 million students from universities, colleges and institutions of higher learning have benefited from the NSS activities, as student volunteers.

- The literacy campaign in 1989 in Kerala owes its success largely to NSS volunteers.
- Kottayam was the first town in India, to become totally literate in 100 days.
- The NSS network was also used in launching the highly successful, 'University Talk Aids Programme' (UTA) in 1991-92.
- The UTA success story, crafted by the NSS is still acknowledged as a pioneering awareness campaign when many considered the subject itself taboo.

CASE STUDY 3 ROLE OF COMMUNITY-LED INSTITUTIONS IN TACKLING THE DRUG MENACE IN HIMACHAL PRADESH

- The widespread illegal cultivation of cannabis and opium in several parts of Himachal Pradesh has attracted traffickers from all over the world, and an increasing number of addicts.
- The state Government launched a campaign to create awareness about the drug menace and uproot cannabis and opium plants between August 22 and September 5, 2016.
- It engaged over 5,000 Mahila Mandals, 4,285 self-help groups and 5,361 schools.
- As many as 1.5 lakh women and 1.2 lakh men volunteered collectively and uprooted 3.56 crore cannabis plants from more than 2,145-hectares of land.
- The Government attributes the success of the campaign to the voluntary spirit demonstrated by the grassrootslevel workers led by the youth brigade especially women, supported from all quarters including youth organizations and student volunteers.

CASE 4 ONLINE VOLUNTEERING

- Global Citizens India is a social action platform where one can learn about issues that matter, take actions and join communities committed to social change.
- The organization believes they can end extreme poverty by 2030, because of the collective actions of Global Citizens across the world.
- Recently, 2016 Global Citizens India organized an event with artists such as Coldplay, Demi Lavato, Shankar Mahadevan and other Bollywood stars where a maximum number of tickets was sold through an online lottery system, with a lot of youth participating in the global citizen pledge towards achieving the SDGs.
